 Originally posted on March 04, 2007

The Gulf Coast Symphony performs another of its Galloway Magic Carpet Family Concert Series on Sunday at 4 p.m. at the Galloway Ford dealership at 1800 Boy Scout Road in Fort Myers.

The concert is free and open to all. No tickets or advance reservations are required.

The theme of the 2006-07 concerts is symphony tales. Sunday's concert will feature the symphonic poem "Finlandia" by Sibelius, Wagner's "Overture to Die Meistersinger von Nürnberg," Tchaikovsky's "Overture - Fantasy Roméo et Juliette" and Weber's "Oberon" overture.

The Gulf Coast Symphony's Galloway concert series is a partnership with the Galloway family. Designed for children of all ages, the one-hour concerts allow children to experience interactive demonstrations, explanations, and one-on-one interaction with orchestra members.
