

Gulf Coast Symphony plans 'Haunted Halloween'

By VIA PRESS RELEASE

Originally published 09:52 a.m., October 20, 2008

Updated 09:52 a.m., October 20, 2008

The Gulf Coast Symphony community orchestra kicks off its series of free Magic Carpet Concerts Sunday at 4 p.m. at the S.T.A.R.S. Complex at 2980 Edison Avenue in Fort Myers.

The hourlong concert will take a "Haunted Halloween" theme and include selections from "A Night on Bald Mountain," "Danse Macabre," "March to the Scaffold & Witches Sabbath" from Berlioz's Symphonie Fantastique, and "Funeral March of a Marionette."

The Gulf Coast Symphony's Magic Carpet Family Concert Series is designed for children of all ages as an introduction to the symphony orchestra. Concerts include a musical petting zoo, interactive demonstrations, explanations and one-on-one interaction with orchestra members. There will also be a costume contest for children.

No tickets or advance reservations are required.

For more information call the Gulf Coast Symphony office at (239) 489-1800 or email: info@gulfcoastsymphony.org.
